

FROM CLAN MACLEOD SOCIETY SOUTH AUSTRALIA NEWSLETTER SEPT. 2009

Australian Women's Lacrosse World Cup, Prague 2009 representative, Tess McLeod, acquitted herself admirably during the World Cup campaign, but the Aussie Team came up 1 goal short of USA in the Final, 8-7. It was a match of many "could've", "should've", "if only this ..". and "..if that".

An astute observer commented that "We had a gold medal defense; but a silver medal attack". For our worthy Silver medalists who came so close. It's another 4 years until the Aussies can attempt the title of World Champions again, in Canada.

McLeod vs. Scotland

The caption creates some irony in that the Scots team wore skirts with MacLeod of Harris tartan.

Post Script Tess retired from international representation after the 2013 World Cup. Her successes in the Aussie team were in 4 World Cups:- 1 Gold, 2 silver, 1 Bronze
